Chosen Together Consultation

Lots of churches talk about their confirmation “program.”
Your church will talk about life-giving relationships.

Chosen Together is an innovative approach to catechism instruction, more than a standard confirmation curriculum, it is a personalized approach to transform your confirmation program into an inclusive, flexible, and relationship-building experience that will engage confirmands, families, and your entire congregation in the conversation.

With Chosen Together, everyone is a teacher, everyone is a learner, everyone is valued, and everyone is chosen in Christ together.

A Personalized Approach

One unique aspect of this product is that bundled with the Chosen Together curriculum is a personal consultation with the creator and writer of these materials, Rev. Natalie Gessert Hall.

There are two options for this personal consultation:

Full Consultation (2 hours)

- Pastor Natalie contacts congregational representatives to learn about the unique context of your congregation.
- She uses this information to prepare a set of curriculum materials that are customized to your congregation.
- An hour-long conversation is scheduled via phone, conference call, or video chat with your leadership team for an extended conversation about:
  - What format is the best fit for your confirmands, their family members, and the congregation.
  - Your context, priorities, needs, preferences, and culture to provide recommendations on how to most effectively implement the confirmation curriculum within your particular congregational context.
- This option is best for congregations who are new to cross+generational ministry or have limited experience with cross+generational faith formation and would find support useful in implementing this style of church-wide learning in their congregation.

Limited Consultation (1 hour)

- Pastor Natalie contacts congregational representatives to learn about the unique context of your congregation.
- She uses this information to prepare a set of curriculum materials that are customized to your congregation.
- This option is best for congregations that have experience with cross+generational faith formation and are confident about implementing this style of church-wide learning in their congregation.
