God's love is the greatest gift we can receive and share.

Unit Theme (May 5—May 19)

The Power of God's Love

L-O-V-E

Create a love collage.

Supplies:

- † Bibles
- † Magazines or old photographs
- † Scissors
- † Glue
- † Mural paper or poster board
- † Optional: Internet-connected devices, printer

Preparation:

1. If you do not have magazines or photos, make plans for participants to search for pictures online and print during the activity.

Instructions:

1. Read 1 Corinthians 13:13 to participants.

2. Take a moment to think about the meaning of love as illustrated in this verse. What does love look like in the Body of Christ?
3. Give participants a moment to think before distributing magazines and old photographs.
4. Let's work together to show others in our community what love in the Body of Christ looks like. Look through the magazines and photographs (or search and print from the Internet) to find visual representations of the meaning of love in today's story. Once you have your ideas, glue them to the mural paper (or poster board). Write the Bible verse somewhere on the collage.
5. Hang finished collages for others to see.
